UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Eric M. Gravel,
o/b/o himself and all others similarly situated,
plaintiffs,
v.
Hearst Television, Inc., et al.,
defendants.

Application for Preliminary Injunction

Plaintiff moves for an Order granting his application for a preliminary Injunction herein and states:

1. He is likely to succeed on the merits herein;
2. He has no adequate remedy at law and will be irreparably harmed if his Application is not granted;
3. Defendants will suffer no harm from the issuance of a Preliminary Injunction in this matter; and
4. The public interest will be served, not harmed, by the issuance of a preliminary Injunction calling for the IMMEDIATE cessation of defendants' harassment of Mr Gravel.

See generally eBay, Inc. v. MercExchange, LLC, 547 U.S. 388 (2006) (factors to take into account in issuing a preliminary injunction); see also Salinger v. Colting, 687 F.3d 68 (2d Cir. 2010) (applying four factors in copyright matter).

This Application is supported by:

1. Plaintiff's VERIFIED COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND (mailed for filing in this Court on May 23, 2023); and
2. The accompanying Affidavit of Eric M. Gravel of even date.

Mr Gravel has previously moved for an Order of Notice scheduling a full evidentiary hearing on his Application and combining that hearing with the trial on the merits herein pursuant to Rule 65(a)(2), Fed. Rules Civ. Proc.

respectfully submitted,

Eric M. Gravel May 30, 2023
